The image displays a 6-line banjo tablature for the song "The Old Spinning Wheel". The music is in 4/4 time and features three main chords: C, G, and D. The tablature is organized into six systems, each with a chord label above it. Each system consists of a five-line staff with fret numbers (0-4) and a corresponding line of rhythmic notation (m for measure, t for triplet). The first system is in C chord and includes a 4/4 time signature. The second system is in G chord. The third system is in C chord. The fourth system is in G chord. The fifth system is in C chord. The sixth system is in C chord. The tablature includes various techniques such as triplets, slurs, and grace notes.
